LOST LIFE WHEN SCHOOL BURNED

County Commissioners Report Ready For Action If Volusia Says Ready.

Holly Hill Parents Lose Daughter In The Burning of a Michigan School.

ROADS AGITATION SPREADS

VICTIM IN GRADUATING CLASS.

The Daily News disclaims having any opinion as to whether or not it is better to harp on any one subject than to harp on another. While this is true the Daily News believes that good roads have done more for the upbuilding of Volusia county than any other thing. It is Daytona's good roads more than anything else that has made this city the mecca of the tourist, who has spent money to the amount of the hundred thousand dollars; it is good roads that have made Daytona the largest town in the county.

Tuesday of this week T. H. Cave, Sr., of Holly Hill, received a telegram from Battle Creek, Mich., to be delivered to J. P. Clegg, which contained an inquiry as to whether or not Mrs. Clegg had started for Battle Creek, leaving the inference that this telegram had been preceded by another, which had failed to reach them.

The young girl in question, Lena McKelvey, was fourteen years of age, and was just ready to graduate from the institution, and but for that fact would probably have accompanied her mother to Holly Hill this fall, where Mr. Clegg owns a winter home to which they have been coming for the past two or three seasons.

Mrs. Clegg and her son, a brother of the girl, at once prepared to leave for Battle Creek, but later advised that nothing but a few charred bones had been recovered from the ruins and no identification could be made, another girl and a colored boy having also been cremated in this disastrous fire, which is thought to have been of incendiary origin. It was decided best for Mrs. Clegg to remain here, rather than face the severe weather of Michigan at this season, when really nothing could be accomplished by the journey.

The most urgent need in the road building line now is the extension of the road from Oak Hill to the Brevard county line. What say the County Commissioners? Brevard is ready and anxious for the road, and proposes to let Volusia at the line.

It was, of course, a terrible shock to Mrs. Clegg and family, and they have the deep sympathy of friends and neighbors in their sudden and sore bereavement.

This is what the Florida Star, Titusville, says:

It will be noted this week that the county commissioners have followed the suggestion made by the Star some months ago to appoint a committee to confer with the Commissioners of Volusia county toward putting the Oak Hill road in good condition. It is Volusia's turn to move. We will meet with interest the outcome of this movement.

The East Coast Advocate, also of Titusville, says:

The Brevard County Commissioners, at their meeting Monday, took up the matter of connecting the hard road systems of Brevard and Volusia counties, and directed the chairman to take the matter up with the Volusia County Commissioners. Now that the subject is fully started, we hope it will be resolved until a good road system connects the two counties. If nothing should be accomplished, the public would like to know which county is lagging on the road of progress and enlightenment.

BODY RESTS TWO YEARS.

A letter from E. Stych, of Bahia Honda, Cuba, speaking of the recent death of his son, says the funeral was attended by the entire American colony, the funeral being in the Bahia Honda cemetery. Under the sanitary laws the body cannot be exhumed and brought to the United States until two years have elapsed.

PRESIDENT AT "OLD ABE'S" BIRTH-PLACE

Many High Officials Are Assembled At The Old Lincoln Homestead.

CELEBRITIES EULOGIZE THE DEAD

(By United Press.)
HODGENVILLE, Ky., Feb. 23.—Standing on the spot where one hundred years ago Abraham Lincoln was born, President Roosevelt will today lay the cornerstone of the marble memorial hall which will shelter the little log cabin where the martyred president was born. General Luke Wright, Secretary of War, who fought in the Southern army, will deliver an address in behalf of the Southern army, which will mark still more the cessation of strife. A Southern churchman, Bishop Gallows, of Mississippi, will pronounce the benediction. Gov. Folk, of Missouri, president of the National Lincoln Farm Association, Gov. Wilson, of Kentucky, and Gen. James Grant Wilson, of the Federal army, will participate. Crowds have invaded the city. The preliminary ceremonies were conducted under a large tent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—In every large city of the United States today is being observed the holiday in honor of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. Business is suspended at many places throughout the country. At the National Capital the churches are holding meetings. At the old Lincoln farm, near Hodgenville, Ky., the President and other distinguished men are laying the cornerstone of a memorial structure. At Chicago, Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, addressed a mass meeting at the great auditorium Julia Ward Howe read a poem written for the occasion. At Boston, former Secretary of the Navy, Long, also spoke. Henry Cabot Lodge delivered an address before a joint meeting of the Senate and Assembly at State House. General O. O. Howard, surviving General of the Union, delivered an address at Burlington, Vt. At Providence, R. I., a Presidential salute was fired at sunrise.

At Springfield, Ill., tonight Ambassador of Great Britain and Ambassador Jusserand of France will pay tribute to Lincoln's memory. The great Commoner, Bryan, will speak in honor of Lincoln. Baron Teikoh, Japanese Minister, will tell of feelings of his people for the great American at Peoria, Illinois.

At New York General Horace Porter delivers an address at Cooper Union. Gun boats from ports will answer salutes from gun boats in harbor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—The people of Kentucky arose early today prepared to give President Roosevelt a warm reception but rain fell throughout the morning. Every hamlet along the way from Cincinnati to Hodgenville furnished impromptu committees. Worthville was passed early in the morning and no one was up on the Roosevelt Special, but one venerable Kentuckian sent out the challenge: "If that was Bryan he'd come out; we got up early; why don't you come?" The arrival at Hodgenville was quiet. The route from town to the Lincoln farm was guarded by State troops. Closed carriages awaited the presidential party, who were quickly transferred from the train to the carriages, and the line of march was taken up at once.

The Scriptures Being Fulfilled.

Elder Parmelee presented the subject of "Capital and Labor" last night at the tent to a good sized and appreciative audience. He described the great amassing of wealth in this time, and took the position that this is in fulfillment of certain predictions of scripture. He said in part:

"According to the second chapter of Isaiah, the last days will be characterized by an abundance of treasure. The second verse shows that conditions described in this chapter will exist in the last days, and the seventh verse shows that in the last days the land will be full of silver and gold, and chariots.

"That the land is full of chariots, or conveyances, must be evident to any one who walks the streets of Daytona. In 1800 there were one billion dollars in the United States. Now the wealth of this country is estimated at 90 billions. It is estimated that there are $30 in gold for every man, woman and child in this country. But we do not have it. Many people have more gold in their mouths than they have in their pockets. What has become of this money?"

"In the fifth chapter of James we learn that it is hoarded. Even the hire of the laborer is kept back by fraud. Is not money hoarded today? Take for example the wealth of John D. Rockefeller. If Adam had never died, and had banked $450 every day of his life until now, he would not have as much money laid up as John D. His wealth, if converted into paper dollars and laid out and would more than five times belt the earth.

"But what does this hoarding of wealth signify? It shows that we are in the last days, when the coming of 'the Lord draweth nigh.'"

The subject for tonight is "The Dragon and the Woman," of Rev. 12.

Observing Lincoln Holiday.
(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Today is a legal holiday in all executive departments. The House met but the Senate adjourned until Monday.

Hankins says:

Our prescription department is our pride. We have the confidence of the physicians and the public. This is increasing our trade every month. Why? Because it is the important part of our business and at all times receives our most careful attention.

OLD CUBA AGAIN WARMING UP.

CUBA'S FUTURE LOOKS BLUE.

(By United Press.)
HAVANA, Feb. 12.—The mutiny of two companies of the rural guard against transfer from the guard to the regular army and the imminent clash between the Gomez and Zayas factions of the Liberal party is causing hundreds of serious-minded Cubans to take a gloomy view of Cuba's future efforts at self-government. The latest unrest has caused fresh alarm.

FROM MT. DORA BY AN AUTO.

H. C. Fuller and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Secor and G. W. Goodsell, arrived in the city on Monday from Mt. Dora, where they are spending the winter, having made the entire trip here in six hours in Mr. Fuller's Stevens-Duryea "Little Six." The party left the Parkinson House, where they stayed while here, and started on the return trip on Thursday morning.

Leaving Mt. Dora the party passed first through Sanford, then Austen Station, Enterprise, Orange City and Deland; the trip from Deland here being made over the new road, which was found to be in excellent condition. In other places the roadway was found to be improved.

The most beautiful part of the trip was a bit of speedway near Orlando, where for quite a distance on either side of the road were acres and acres of celery.

Altogether the trip was a pleasant one and easy to make, giving auto enthusiasts a trip something out of the ordinary from this point, being just a nine hours run.

PROCEED IN EVEN TENOR.

In an interview with the newly elected Mayor, E. W. Greene, he states that he will pursue the same conservative policy which has characterized his previous administration, and that people need expect no municipal pyrotechnics. Those of you who were expecting a recommendation from his Honor for a subway to the beach, aerial service to the "Model Farm," government administered on commission plan with Chief of Staff drawing annual stipend of $800,000 annually etc., are doomed to disappointment. Things will move along just as they do at "Bosting," or any other well regulated town. He does not contemplate any change in such appointments as it is a prerogative of the Mayor to make, so John Myers, the popular Marshal will continue to carry the club.

MUSICALE MUCH ENJOYED.

Ladies of The Palmetto Club Enjoy An Afternoon of Delightful Music.

FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT PRESIDES.

The Palmetto Club musical is always anticipated with much pleasure and Thursday afternoon proved the anticipation well founded, for all those fortunate enough to be present were given a delightful treat. The room, a perfect sower of green, was crowded to its utmost capacity with members and guests.

The first vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Downing, was present for the first time this season and the president invited her to preside. She opened the meeting with a few well chosen words of greeting and stated the musical committee, Mrs. Belle Abbott Haynes, chairman, had been fortunate in securing Swift's String Quintette of Boston, now playing at The Ormond, to entertain the club for the afternoon.

The following program was delightfully given, each number seemed more beautiful than the last. If there was any choice, judging by the applause, it seemed to be Andante Cantabile, from the String Quartette, Tchaikowski, though all were well received and thoroughly enjoyed.

Overture, The Calif of Bagdad, Boieldieu Forget Me Not, Macbeth; Serenade, Pique.
Selections from The Merry Widow, Lehár Traumerei, Schumann; En Sourdine, Tchaikowski.
Two Hungarian Dances, Brahms
Andante Cantabile, from String Quartette, Tchaikowski.
Poppies, A Japanese Romance, Moret
Minuet, Bolzoni; Pizzicato, Smart, Very Smart, Gillet
Selections from The Red Mill, Herbert Danse Ecossaise, Baker

Mrs. Downing announced there would be a meeting of the Civic Department on Monday at 2:30 and invited anyone interested to attend. Also, that there would be Club tea next Thursday, at which it was hoped the members and their guests would be present, to enjoy a social afternoon.

At the close of the program a social hour, with punch and cake was enjoyed. Mrs. T. F. Cordis and Mrs. Geo. W. Wells were the hosts of the afternoon.

Chicago Alderman Suicides.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Alde man J. F. Kohout committed suicide at his home today by shooting. The cause is unknown.

The Rollins College team defeated Ormond several days ago by the walkaway score of 9 to 4. Stetson has also defeated Ormond a couple of times, but neither of these teams has been able to win from Daytona. It looks like a game between Ormond and Daytona might be lots of fun for Daytona rooters.

SEABREEZE, Feb. 12—W. H. Safford died Thursday morning at 9:30 a. m., of general paralysis, at the Seminole beach cottage, after an illness of a few hours. Mr. Safford came to Seabreeze last December from Newburyport, Mass., on account of ill health, and had been spending the winter at the cottage with his son, Arthur E. Safford, cashier at The Clarendon, and his young wife. Mr. Safford was apparently quite well yesterday, and went to the depot to meet his wife, who expected to spend the remainder of the winter here; ate a hearty dinner on their return home, and retired in fine spirits. He was taken ill about 11 o'clock at night; Dr. Bohannon was summoned and remained with him most of the night, but there was no rallying from the attack, and death came as a relief to his suffering. Deceased leaves a wife and four sons, Arthur E. John, William Jr., and DeLois Safford; the three last named of whom are residents of Newburyport, Mass. Mrs. Safford accompanies the remains of her husband to Newburyport, Mass., leaving on today's northbound.

The San Souci Club held a very interesting afternoon with Edgar Allen Poe, at the home of Mrs. Bigelow, Wednesday, February 10th. Mrs. Ayres and Mrs. Reed read biographies of the poet. Each gave a synopsis, and read selections from "The Raven"; Mrs. Bigelow read some of his short poems. Mrs. Raynor, one of the guests, gave a very interesting talk on parliamentary rules. Mrs. Beardsley read a letter from her sister, Mrs. Neil (a former member) wishing the club success, and presenting to them two books on parliamentary law. Mrs. Bigelow served light refreshments, and the social half hour, which followed was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present.

Mrs. T. F. Williams and daughters, of Daytona, spent yesterday on Ocean boulevard, guests of Mrs. A. S. Randall. Mr. Haigh is having his lot on Palmetto avenue, south of the Glenview boulevard church, cleared of brush, and the high knoll graded down.

Mrs. Tom A. Stone, of Bowling Green, Ky., has taken room for two months at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. Evernden, on Oakridge avenue. Mrs. Stone's husband is a prominent physician of his home city.

Dressing the Sponge.
When sponges are first torn from the sea bed they are of a dark color and living. By tramping and pressing them with the feet a milky substance comes out, whereupon the sponge dies. They are then immersed in the sea for a space of eight or ten hours. The dark, slimy substance is then removed by scraping, and gradually, through cleaning, drying and bleaching, they take on the fine yellow color which characterizes many of them.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 12—E. E. Johnson has completed the third story of his stone house.

Mrs. T. E. Robinson who, with her little daughter, has been spending the winter at the home of E. A. Branch, will return to Rock Fall, Ill., the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Buie arrived from Lake City and are spending some time at the Lone Bay.

Mrs. Hattie Polzien and little daughter arrived from Aurora, Ill., on a visit to the former's father, A. S. Harroun, and will spend the remainder of the season here.

Mrs. Doublefield, of Des Moines, Ia., came in this week and have taken rooms at the E. E. Johnson stone house.

G. W. Buckner shows commendable public spirit. When a Daily News reporter passed down Ocean boulevard yesterday afternoon Mr. Buckner was at work with his coat off, shovel in hand leveling the ugly "hump" along his ocean frontage, so that the road to and from the beach was measurably improved. Mr. Buckner had also considerably erected two comfortable wooden benches, so the wayfarer may rest as he studies the beauties of sea and sky.

Mrs. Holdrede and daughter, Miss Holdrede, of Madison, N. Y., are among the week's arrivals at the E. E. Johnson cottage.

The Tourist Club meet this afternoon with Mrs. A. S. Harroun and will have a Lincoln program.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickbert, of Michigan, who have been in the burg some time, have taken rooms in Mrs. Williamson's flat, on Seabreeze avenue.

Speaking of our beautiful climate, a little boy from Maine, who is spending his first winter in the Southland, said to his father the other day, "Father, when does winter begin here?"

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Ayres, parents of Mrs. R. S. Holmes, arrives from the North today and will spend several months on the peninsula.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Harroun yesterday, and each lady took with her a piece of fancy work she intended donating to the bazaar, which will be held in the unoccupied McCullough building, adjoining Webster's grocery store, on the 18th.

Where There's a Will—Helen's mother passed her cake, and when the little one went to reach across the plate for the largest piece her mamma said, "Always take the piece nearest to you, dear."

The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ver-andas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed p-leican p-owh a fat mullet, and that fish hawk straggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies; and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead upon this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish dardaries, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscope change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The Birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Progressive Whist at The Gables.
A Progressive Whist was given at The Gables Wednesday evening by Mrs. Jas
W. Smythe, of Yonkers, N. Y. Guests at table were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Hathaway, Dr. and Mrs. Hale, Mr. and Mrs.
W. H. Seipes, Mrs. Hazel Meisberger,
Miss May Mosley, Mrs. Wm. McCallum,
Mrs. Mauger, Miss Gaughan, Mrs. Hattie Bolton, Messrs. Theodore Van Ness, H.
W. Crane, Fred Hartman, Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Smythe.

The prizes were a sterling silver hat pin, an ivory desk knife, a portfolio of stationery and a peckaninnie puzzle.
The first prizes were won by Dr. and Mrs. Hale, and the other two by Mrs.
W. H. Seipes and J. W. Smythe.
The decorations of the rooms were vases of beautiful roses known as Cloth of Gold, and upon each table were bon-bon dishes of salted nuts and sweets.

The invited guests who were not stopping at The Gables were conveyed to their homes in a large touring auto provided by Miss Gaughan.

Mrs. Smythe is the sister of Edwin A.
Oliver, editor of the Yonkers Daily Statesman, and one of the leading humorists of this country

At Wilman's Opera House.
"Hooligan in New York" the big trick pantomimic comedy drama is booked to appear at Wilman's opera house on Wednesday, next, and will be presented by a great company of well known and well liked dramatic artists including Nellie LaFluer, Maymie Maxwell, Carrie Herbert, Edna Hubert, Ryan & Douglas, Robt. Merideth, Clinton DeWitt and Frank H. Collier in his original creation of Hooligan.

"Hooligan in New York" is the original big city production of the cartoon comedy and carries a car load of scenery and trick properties to properly present this novel play. A wonderful realistic railroad scene, an opium den, City Hall Park at night, Greely Square and East Side Den, are some of the scenic sensations that will be shown.

The Bite of a Rattlesnake.
The Cherokee Indians' cure for the bite of a rattlesnake is at once so common sense and scientific as to merit a widespread acceptance. Its common sense lies in the fact that the victim has or ought to have the necessary implement always at hand, there need not be an instant's delay, and that it is the scientific plan goes without saying because it carries away the poison at once. The Indian at once, when bitten, drawing his knife, pinched up the part bitten and cut it out, then, seeking the nearest stream, not often very far away, plunged the leg in the running water and kept it there until all bleeding had ceased and, as may informant, an old man, told me, seldom suffered any ill effects.

Usually, as we know, no physician can be reached or reliable remedy had until the case is too far gone for any effort to avail, but with a knife and, if not a running stream, water enough to keep the wound wet washed and the blood flowing I believe there would be fewer deaths following rattlesnake bites.—Forest and Stream.

M. E. Church, South.
Preaching next Sunday morning and evening in the Kingston M. E. Church, South by the pastor, on Salvation Themes, and at 3 p. m., at Holly Hill schoolhouse.

On Monday evening at 7:30, will commence an old fashioned protracted meeting in the Kingston M. E. Church, South, Rev. Mr. Rutter will do the preaching up to Friday evening, when Rev. J. B. Harris, the distinguished evangelist who quite recently conducted a revival meetings in the First M. E.
Church, will have charge.
"Will thou not revive us again that thy people may rejoice in thee?"

Woman and Her Back.
In Henry Baerlein's novel "Yrivid" there is a discovery about the expression of the emotions which even Darwin forgot to record. It is to the effect that woman chiefly uses her back to convey her sentiments. And, indeed, any close observer of the human comedy can hardly fail to notice that does a woman wish to annihilate a rival and cast despair into the soul of a lover she simply turns an expressive back upon them. No tears, no wrath, no indignation, can vie with this maneuver, which has, too, the advantage of being noncommittal, for no one, in the current jargon, can "give herself away" with her back. The expression of the emotions by this part of the anatomy is dignified, if a trifle limited. When a woman cries she is too apt to make a deplorable grimace. Does she get angry, her face will assume an un-becomingly red. Very few understand the use of the gesture of the hands and arms. That is why woman, with her primordial instinctive wisdom, uses her back, especially when it is beautiful, as one of the chief weapons in the eternally diverting war of the sexes.

Toward the Pole.
See eight feet thick on the ocean and snow falling even in summer—such is the weather experienced in the polar regions. When the air is dry and still it is remarkable how low a temperature can be borne with ease. One explorer tells us that with the thermometer at 9 degrees it was too warm for skating. The summer weather in this region is, moreover, in some respects pleasant and healthful. Within the arctic zone there are wonderfully colored sunrises and sunsets to be seen.
They are both brilliant and impressive says a writer in the Penny Pictorial.
But the nights—the nights are monotonous and repelling, a rigid world buried in everlasting snow, silent save for the cracking of the ice or the wail of the wind. Travelers in these regions experience many discomforts.
The keen air causes their skin to burn and blister, while their lips swell and crack. Thirst, again, has been much complained of, arising from the action of the low temperature on the warm body.

Going, Going, Gone!
A New York auctioneer was begging the crowd for a bid. He pleaded for ten minutes and then in desperation cried:
"For the Lord's sake, will no one give me a bid?"
A mild spoken gentleman replied:
"Why, yes, old man, I'll try to help you out. I bid you good night." And the kindly disposed one departed, leaving the auctioneer to the tender mercies of a laughing crowd.

Crowding Him.
Mr. Pogson's three sons had married and gone to settle down in different parts of the country. One day he received this telegram from the eldest: "You have a grandson. Fine boy. Ten pounds."
Mr. Pogson answered it at once: "Good! Buy finest baby carriage you can find and send bill to me."
FATHER.
In due time the bill came. It called for $35, and he sent his check for the amount.
A few weeks later his second son sent him this dispatch: "You are the grandparent of a fine boy. Not weighed yet, but a bouncer."
HENRY.
To this he responded: "Glad to hear it. Buy good, serviceable baby carriage and forward bill to me."
FATHER.
Promptly came the bill. It was for $25, and he paid it.
Ten days elapsed, and then came a dispatch from the third son to this effect: "You have another grandson. Large, fine boy. Named for you."
Mr. Pogson's response to this was as follows: "All right, but looks like crowding me. Am sending $1250. Buy baby carriage with it."
—Youth's Companion.

Very Lucky.
The following is a genuine essay by a ten-year-old boy: "My life has been a very lucky one. When I was three years old I fell downstairs and cut my head. When I was five years old I was looking at some hens, and a dog bit my leg. When I was eight I went with my brother in the trap, and the horse fell and threw us out of the trap; my brother hit on his head, and I hit on the horse's back. Last year I was playing, and I ran into a sursey and cut my eyebrow, and it has left a mark. One day I went into the slaughter house, and a big sheep ran after me and knocked me down. I have had a happy life."
This cheerful acceptance of what are usually regarded as the filis of life reminds the writer of an old school-fellow who took part in the fight at Elandsplaagte at the beginning of the South African war. After the engagement he was taken to the hospital at Pietermaritzburg. As soon as he was able he wrote home and sent his people the tunic he had worn in the battle.
"You will see," he wrote, "that there are eleven bullet holes in it, but I was awfully lucky. Only six of them hit me."—Cleveland Leader.

Ben Franklin's Keeness.
Two incidents recall the keeness and the thoroughness—the great twin abilities, to see and to utilize—of Ben Franklin. One day he chanced to observe a lady in the possession of an imported whisk broom. With his usual interest and careful consideration he examined it as a novelty. He discovered on the brush of the broom a seed, which he carefully removed. Presently he planted it, and the growth from this seed was the first crop of broom corn in this country. Again one day when Dr. Franklin was walking by Dock creek he saw stuck in the mud a wickerwork basket, which had sprouted. Carefully he fished out the basket and carefully took it apart. He gave cuttings to his friend, Mr. Charles Norris, who planted the twigs in his garden, where they grew to great size. They turned out to be yellow willows and, as Franklin had foreseen, proved of great commercial value.

Why He Was Mad.
Stubb—What's the trouble with the writer's husband? He looks angry enough to chew tacks. Penn—And he is. She dedicated her latest book to him. Stubb—Gracious! I should consider that a compliment. Penn—Not if you knew the title of the book. It is "Wild Animals I Have Met."—Chicago News.

Provided It.
"What started the riot at the performance of 'Hamlet' last night?" "Why, Hamlet held the skull and said: 'Alas, poor Yorick! You are not the only deadhead in the house.'"
